On Thursday evening, May 6th, a large number of nvited guests assembled at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Parker, in this place, to witness the marringe of their daughter, Mellie F. Parker, with Mr. Frank Zimmerman, of this vicinity. At 8 o'clock the marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. R. E. McBride, of the Methodist church. The bride and groom were attended by Mr. A. H. Hulse, of Winthnop, Missouri, and Miss Jessie Parker, and by Mr. John Conway and Miss Veva Tracy, of St. Joseph, as groomsmen and bridesonaids. It will suffice to say that the parties most interested in the ceremony were tastefully and handsomely dressed; but as we are not versed in the art of describing such affairs,

The company was so numerous that they could not be got together to be counted, until the ceremony took place, when they managed to mass in the room orways and windows, when it was ascertaine that guests were present from Troy and all the sur-rounding country, St. Joseph, Severance, and a numer of other places. Those whom we can now call to mind are the following. If the names of any are mitted, it is not intentional :

The bride and groom, the groomsmen and brides-maids, and Mr. Parker's family, of course were there; Rev. Mr. McBride and wife; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Zimsan; Mr. and Mrs. A. Perry; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Higby, and Mrs. Hutchinson; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rappelye; Mr. and Mrs. Asa Brackenridge; Mrs. Sol. Miller; Mr. Daniel Bursk and Miss M. E. Strahau; Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Jacques, and Messrs. Deut. and Frank Jacques; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Snyder, and the Misses Snyder; Miss Lida Vansice, and Miss Eva Fleming; Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Chambe Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jacques; Mr. and Mrs. James Saxton; Mr. and Mrs. George Bicknell; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Zimperment Bicknell; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Zimu Mr. and Mrs. George B. Smith; Mr. Clem. Klippe and Miss Mary Klippel—all of Troy and vicinity— Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Long, of Severance; Col. and Mrs. Frank M. Tracy, of St. Joseph; Mrs. C. C. Wheeler, ler, and Miss Alice Gray, of Highland; Dr. Smith, of Nebraska City; and Mrs. Smith, of

After the ceremony, came music, and refresh ments in abundance, and of the very best. Then ame the wedding presents from the relatives, friends and guests. They were unusually large in number, and many of them of great elegance meng them, we may enumerate:

Pair of vases, from John Conway; syrup cup, from Veva Tracy; dozen German napkins, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Tracy; dozen white linen napkins and flowers, Mrs. Fanny Zimmerman; fine thread tidy, Miss Lida ansice; toilet set, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rappelye; pair jelly stands and bouquet of flowers, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Snyder; pickle casket, Miss Lizzie Snyder; glass pitcher, A. H. Hulse; celluloid toilet set, Mrs. A. B. Smith, of Plattsmouth, Neb.; silver sugar dish, Dr. A. M. Smith, of Nebraska City; silver tea set, Mary F. Melvin, Chicago, Ill.; set silver spoons, Clem and Mary Klippel; glass sauce dish, Mr. and Mrs. A. Perry; glass pitcher, Mr. and Mrs. Asa Breckenridge; pair silver table spoons, Henry Mel-vin, Nelson, N. H.; fine table cloth and towel, heirone in the family, Grandma Melvin; real lace handkerchief and elegant embroidered handkerchief ox, Miss Jessie M. Parker; shell jewelry case, Miss Julia Beeler, Highland; silver wire fruit basket and bouquet, Mrs. C. C. Wheeler, Highland; two sets ilver knives and package pressed ferns, Mr. and Mrs. Gilman Plumer, Manchester, N. H.; elegant hand-carved knife-box, and one set knives, Frank, amp-mat, Jessie Parker, set of goldets, Mrs. Sol. differ; glass cake stand, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Higby; round gives preserve dish, Miss Katie Chamber lain; iamp, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Long; glass sauce dish, Mrs. Bicknell; glass sauce-dish, Mrs. Hutchin on, Boston; $50 worth of table ware, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Parker; cook stove and cow, Mr. and Mrs. mmerman and Eddie and Mark Zimmerman; s beautiful pink borse-shoe pin-cushion, Miss H. E. Melvin, Cincinnati; one set of bordered linen napkins, Mrs. Lois Melvin, Cincinnati. (The cow and the cook-stove were not on the table rith the other presents.) Almost enough to set up house-keeping, it will be seen. The table-cloth and towel presented by Mrs. Melvin, were of the finest linen, and were woven with her own hands, in her young days. She kept them all these years, to present to her first grand child who should be married; and Miss Mellie was the lucky one.

The company dispersed at a late hour, all having enjoyed themselves to the utmost. On the following evening, a reception was given at the residence of the parents of the bridegroom Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Zimmerman, east of Troy. We acknowledge the receipt of a box of goodies from

DIDN'T MAKE IT .- One day last week, a couple of of the principal roads in the vicinity of town. As they were passing the farm of one of the most high-tened Christians in all the region round about, whom we shall call Chimpanzee, for short, they saw opher start up near the hedge, and send for the other side. One of the young men yanked out his revolver and banged away at the animal, but misse him. They had gone but a few rods further, when old Chimpanzee himself, the proprietor of the farm, leaped out of a field, placed himself in the middle of the road in front of them, and threw up his hands The drivers stopped, and asked what he wanted. "You shot a quail," was the reply. "and I caught you t it." "No, we didn't, either," said one of the men we shot at a gopher." "I know better," retorted Chimpanzee. "You shot a quail, and have it there noer the seat. It is out of season, and you have laid yourself liable to a heavy fine. Now, fork over won't say anything about it." "Your name is Chim panzee, ain't it !" queried the young man. "Yes. Well, there are a good many Chir here, and I don't just know which one you are What is your first name?" "My name is Lucius. "Well, then, you d-d dirty dog," said the shootist, just get out of the way as fast as the Lord will let you, or I'll give you the next load?" The high-toned Christian got, and thus failed in one attempt to com pound a felony and levy black-mail.

Women Never Think! If the crabbed old bachelor who uttered this sen iment could but witness the intense thought, deep and thorough investigation of women in dete ning the best medicines to keep their families well, and would note their sagacity and wisdom in select ing Hop Bitters as the best, and demonstrating it by keeping their families in perpetual health, at a mere nominal expense, he would be forced to acknowledge that such scatiments are buseless and false. FOR THE MOUNTAINS.-Last week, Dr. Edgar Allan Henshall and Joe Morehead started for Colorado The former was bound for Denver, and the latter for Leadville. On Monday, George Hagenbuch and George Lang started. Their destination is farther South than Leadville. John Guider also started, the same day, for Leadville. Others are talking o going. Old Joe Studebaker has reconsidered the eatter, and come to the sensible conclusion to stay in Troy. Boys, we wish you all good luck; but who you get there, and find nothing to do, and men offering to work for the accommodation of being ridden out of town on a rail, and one dollar per night charged for sleeping on the lower board of a fence, and you are hungry, and sick, and have no strings to tie the rags fast to you, and think, "Good Lord, if I was only ack home!" remember the fatherly advice Old Sol

Miller gave you, with tears in his eyes. All Indorse It.

PROM GLEN ELDER.

GLEN ELDER, KAS., May 3, 1880. EDITOR KANSAS CHIEF.-We are now entering our second year since leaving Doniphan County, in March of last year. Father Day and I have traveled together the Glen Elder and Solomon Rapids Circuit. which lie on the Solomon River, between Beloit and Cawker City, and extending northward, up the valley of Brown's Creek and Limestone, into Jewell

County, embracing Ionia. When we arrived here, the last of March, there was no parsonage, nor house to be rented as one. At once we began the work of raising funds by voluntary contribution, for the purpose of building a bouse, which by such methods as a tedious and not infrequently a thankless undertaking. But a gra-cious Providence and kind friends so smiled upon ference, we were able to move our family—con of two women and two little girls-into the shell of our new parsonage. In the mean time, after packing up and starting, they spent about half their time visiting friends on the way, and the other half in stopping from house to house in our new field, while our furniture lay stored in a barn. During the Fall, the ladies, by means of festivals, secured substantially the amount necessary to complete the building. astering it throughout.

While in Leavenworth, attending Conference Chaplain McCabe—of Libby Prison notoriety—promised that he would help me build a church out here: and, true to his word, he secured for us a donation of $250, with the aid of which the brethren at our Brown's Creek appointment, in Jewell County, were enabled to build a neat frame Chapel, 24 by 36 feet, which was named, in honor of the Chaplain, McCabe Chapel. It is valued at $1,000, and was dedicated ust before the last Conference, out of debt.

During the winter months, with the aid of several other brethren, we held protracted meetings at six or eight points, which resulted in a large increase of bership. The total additions to the charge for the year numbered one hundred and eighty-four forty-nine of whom were members, and one hundred and thirty-five probationers. (This, of course, doe not include those who were merely received into full connection during the year.) Having begun the year with something over 200, it closed with a total of 400. At the division of the circuit, however, 190 were set off to form Brown's Creek, and a part of Oak Creek circuits. We had two new points added, with 25 or 30 members, and still have the same num ber of appointments as before, riz, eight, with a probability of taking up the ninth.

The friends at Solomon Rapids have taken into consideration the question of building a new Church the present season, and if they will stand together and diligently work for the accomplishment of that object, they will undoubtedly succeed, as they already have a fund of about $350, on hands, which has been accumulating since 1872. Glen Elder is a small and thriving new town, or city of the third class, located on the north bank of the Solomon, and the Central Branch Railroad, 195 miles west of Atchison. It contains 4 general mer chandise stores, 2 drug stores, I hardware store. grist and flouring mill, 2 grain depots, 1 lumber yard, 2 hotels, 1 livery stable, 1 plow-factory, 2 blacksmith shops, I meat market, I law and land office, I good frame school house, where religious services are held by the Methodist and Christian denominations-and no saloon. There was one, but the sign was taken down on the 1st of the month, as a majority of the people protested against its being re-licensed. I send these items, thinking some of our Donipha County friends, and readers of The Chief, may be glad to hear from us, as we certainly are to hear often through your columns from them. B. A. HOFFMAN, Member Kas. Conference "THE NORTHERN TIER."-Mr. Samuel Wilson, of Hiawatha, is now here, soliciting subscriptions for Jeff. Jenkins' Northern Kansas book. It is a work levoted, in part, to early reminiscences of Doniphar County, and very many of our people would like to have a copy. As the price is only $1, it is within the reach of all. Mr. Wilson is also agent for a number of other valuable books; and as he is an affable and pleasant old gentleman, far removed from the regulation book agent bore, we bespeak for him a kind ly reception by our people. A Household Need. A book on the Liver, its diseases and their trea

The Leadville adventurers have commenced returning. We judge, from their representations, that they did not find everything lovely out there.

The services at the Methodist Episcopal church, last Sunday evening, had an episode, which was the marriage of Miss Agnes Lewis, of White Cloud, to Rev. Mr. Laverty, of Havensville. The eeremony was performed by Rev. Isane Cranner. The public had anticipated the affair, and there is supposed to have been rather more of a congregation, on that evening, than for common. The newly married couple left en a short wedding trip, on Monday, and a number of the friends of the bride—by the way, these are many and warm—were at the depot, to see her off. He was fastened to the double-trees, by the near horse pulling back; finally, after being carried some distance, and the other horse starting up, dropped him, and the wheels ran over him, breaking several ribs, and otherwise injuring him, supposed fatally. The horses ran to Genry City, about three miles, and were stopped at that place. The team was not injured. There are parties in this County who are practic ticing medicine, who have neither license from the State Bloard or any other authority to do the same. It would be well for such persons to prepare themselves to do such business legally, and not to violate the medical law, as the penalty is from fifty to five hundred dollars fine, and imprisonment. Physicians who have legalized themselves for the pactice of medicine, are notified to report to the Secretary of the State Board, all such persons.

George Loyd, Sen., living at Breuner Station, and who is one of the first settlers on Pleasant Ridge Prairic, and is widely known by all wheat raisers, as being one of the best feeders to a threshing marchine, and ran one for many years, took his departure, on last Sunday, arriving on the farm commonly known as the Hancock farm, three miles north of Doniplan. The premises are now occupied by one Mrs. Warner, a sprightly widow, out of her teens, and fully grown. About three o'clock, the minister arrived, and the people flocked in from every direction, and the two were made one, to live and love each other, and forsake all others, as long as a tick will stick to a dog's ear. Saluting the bride, (a custom usually done on such occasions), the bride and groom were left alone, to enjoy the honeymoon as best smited themselves.

The new post-office is now finished. It is placed in the back part of Springer and Co.'s now large store-room. It is shaped like a quadrant, containing in the one frame the boxes for papers and letters for general delivery, nearly two hundred numbered boxes, and sixteen lock boxes, which are almost all taken. It is painted in the best taste, and with the new shelving and new room in which it is located, makes the prettiest post-office in the County.

What Rippey or Bob Ware or Freyberger have been doing to induce the Lord to shoot at them with lightning, we don't know; but the fact remains, that He gave them all a close rub, by striking a corn-crib belonging to the former, on the come of the roof, a knocking the chingles flying, and splintering the corner post to pieces, while Bob and Freyberger were inside the building, last Saturday. It is a good thing for Mr. Rippey that it did not take fire, for it is in town, and near houses, and the cribs of other grain near.

If we did not have a sufficient number of clerks and "fish-skinners" in the Point, we could make up a deficiency in those lines of "dusiness" out of the overplus in another (necessary, too) line of business: that of croquet players. Our crowd representing this line of amosement and pastime, can undoubtedly heat the world—we don't mean in scientific playing, but in the length of and steadiness of time employed.
